The Cathedral Music Society presents The Robert Glasgow Concert

Martin Jean, organ

The Robert Glasgow Concert honors the legacy of this great American concert organist and pedagogue. It is presented this season in cooperation with the University of Michigan School of Music, Theatre, and Dance as part of the 57th Annual Fall Organ Conference, and the Cathedral Music Society. The concert is generously underwritten by Susan and Gene Goodson.

This year's recitalist is American concert organist Martin Jean, Professor of Organ at Yale University. Professor Jean's program will include Charles-Marie Widor's stirring Symphonie Romane and Louis Vierne's masterwork, Symphonie V.

Admission is free of charge.
