CHIP Clinic and Outreach ministries today

Today we begin a new monthly outreach initiative in partnership with All.together Ministries, FedUp Ministries, Wayne State's CHIP Clinic, and our Feeding Hungry People Committee. In addition to the CHIP clinic in Barth Hall, we will host laundry, shower, and a food truck in the parking lot behind the auxiliary building offering essential services to our neighbors from 9:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m., with food served from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.. We welcome this collaboration with open arms and are hopeful and grateful for what's to come. If you are interested in volunteering on future Sundays, or would like more information, please speak with Mimi Lanseur at mlanseur@detroitcathedral.org 313.833.7542 or John LaDuke ladukejd@gmail.com. You may also call the Cathedral Office at 313.833.4409.

The Blessing of the Animals – October 5

The Blessing of the Animals will take place on the lawn at 3:45 p.m. on Sunday, October 5. This is followed by a short service of Evening Prayer in the Cathedral for the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, to which your pets are also invited!

Workshop – Praying the Daily Office – October 12

The Daily Office in the Book of Common Prayer (BCP) has provided the rhythm of daily practice by which Anglicans throughout the centuries ordered their lives around scripture, psalmody, and prayer. Its roots are traced to the early church, through monasticism, and the English reformation. But praying the Daily Office can be intimidating! How to get started? Are there resources to help? Join us for a Daily Office Workshop on Sunday, October 12, 12:45 p.m. to 2:45 p.m. in the Parlor. Taught by Mike Dagle, this workshop will explore the history and structure of the Daily Office, how to pray Morning and Evening Prayer, and navigate the BCP with confidence. Whether you're brand new or looking to get reacquainted with the Daily Office, all are welcome. Please email Mike Dagle at mdagle@gmail.com with questions.

A new Dean for the Cathedral!

As we learned last week, the Reverend Joseph Caldwell Alsay has been called at the Eleventh Dean of the Cathedral! Father Alsay will begin his ministry here on the First Sunday of Advent, November 30. Please visit the website (detroitcathedral.org) for a special video message from Dean-elect Alsay to his new congregation.

News / Announcements / Opportunities to Serve

September 28, 2025

Welcome! Our vision is to be an extraordinary spiritual gathering place where people of all backgrounds and ages are welcome to question and learn, pray, worship and serve; being loved by God in ways that change and improve their lives and the lives of others.

Visitors are encouraged to fill out a blue pew card and place it in the offering box in the Crossing. Please ask a clergy person or usher if you have questions. All are welcome—if you are looking for a church home, you have one here.

About Receiving Communion – Please know that this is God’s table and any person seeking to be fed from it will not be turned away. To receive the consecrated bread, extend your hands and it will be placed in your palm. Should you choose to receive the consecrated wine, you may guide the chalice gently to your mouth taking a small sip. Those desiring gluten-free Communion should ask the clergy when coming forward for Communion.

Anyone may come forward at the time of Communion and receive the blessing instead, by crossing your arms across your chest. When returning to your seat after making your communion, please return to your pew by using the side aisles. At 11:00 a.m., Communion is offered at the High Altar, and in Grace Chapel, a barrier-free location to the left of the pulpit. Prayers for healing, for you or another, are offered in the Chapel of the Intercession (at the front of the Cathedral on the right-hand side) during Communion.

About Children and Worship – Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me, for to them belongs the Kingdom of God.” We believe that the place of a child is in worship in the Cathedral. We hope you will help them follow the service, sing the hymns, and use the bulletin and Prayerbook. At the back of Grace Chapel, there is a soft space available. If you feel the need to step out, we have space in the Parlor which has the livestream of the service, so you can follow along that way.
