The Blessing of the Animals – today at 3:45 p.m.

The Blessing of the Animals will take place on the lawn today at 3:45 p.m. This is followed by a short service of Evening Prayer in the Cathedral for the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, to which your pets are also invited!

Music at Mid-day – October 10

Our next installment of Music at Mid-day is offered on October 11 at 12:30 p.m. and will feature Cathedral Organist and Choirmaster, Jeremy David Tarrant playing works of Johann Sebastian Bach.

Workshop – Praying the Daily Office – October 12

Join us for a Daily Office Workshop on Sunday, October 12, 12:45 p.m. to 2:45 p.m. in the Parlor. Taught by Mike Dagle, this workshop will explore the history and structure of the Daily Office, how to pray Morning and Evening Prayer, and navigate the BCP with confidence. Whether you're brand new or looking to get reacquainted with the Daily Office, all are welcome. Please email Mike Dagle at mdagle@gmail.com with questions.

Choral Evensong for Indigenous Peoples Day – October 12

We will observe Indigenous Peoples Day at Choral Evensong on October 12 at 4:00 p.m. Father Estes will officiate this service and the Schola Cantorum will offer music of Amy Beach and Kola Owolabi.

FedUP(date)

Our first collaboration Sunday with FedUp Ministries took place this past Sunday, September 28. Thanks to the dedicated work of our Feeding Hungry People volunteers as well as our colleagues from All.together and CHIP, we were able to provide over 50 individuals with these greatly needed resources. Our next Sunday with FedUp Ministries will be October 26. If you are interested in volunteering, or would like additional information please reach out to Mimi Lanseur at mlanseur@detroitcathedral.org, or call the Cathedral Office.

A new Dean for the Cathedral!

The Reverend Joseph Caldwell Alsay has been called at the Eleventh Dean of the Cathedral! Father Alsay will begin his ministry here on the First Sunday of Advent, November 30. Please visit the website (detroitcathedral.org) for a special video message from Dean-elect Alsay to his new congregation.

Update your information

Have you moved? Has your phone or e-mail changed? Please help us keep up to date with your information by communicating changes to our Parish Coordinator, Erin McClellan. You can e-mail her at emclellan@detroitcathedral.org, or call the Office at 313.833.4409.

Intercessions

We give thanks for Cathedral parishioners and friends celebrating birthdays: Jechu, Veronica, and Atticus.

We lift up those for whom prayers have been requested: Cheryl, Vivian, Tim, Janice, David & Family, Larraine, Briana, Uma, Marcus, Liam, John, Lisa, Lance, Sarah, Mary, John, Deborah, Robert, Jem, Helen, Virginia, Lilly, and Patsy. You may add yourself or a loved one to this list by calling 313.833.4409 or e-mailing us: info@detroitcathedral.org. We pray for those in uniform serving our country at home and abroad, and for the ongoing ministries of the Open Cathedral Docents and the Vergers.

We pray for peace throughout the world. Hasten, O Lord, our commitment to justice and peace for all God's people.

We pray for an end to the gun violence which plagues our nation. Give solace to grieving communities, and bring peace to anxious hearts. Bestow courage upon our legislators to commit to sensible gun laws as we seek to wipe away the scourge of gun violence in our land. Help us to remember that fervent prayer must be coupled with bold action.

We pray for Sean, Presiding Bishop; Bonnie, our Bishop; for Elizabeth, Presiding Bishop of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America; Yehiel, Presiding Bishop-Elect of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America; Donald and Craig, Lutheran Bishops in Lower Michigan; and for Moisés, Bishop of the Dominican Republic. In the Anglican Cycle of Prayer we pray for the Anglican Church of Tanzania. In the Diocesan Cycle of Prayer we remember All Saints Church, East Lansing; and St. Paul and St Luke, San Isidro, in the Dominican Republic.

News / Announcements / Opportunities to Serve

October 5, 2025

Welcome! Our vision is to be an extraordinary spiritual gathering place where people of all backgrounds and ages are welcome to question and learn, pray, worship and serve; being loved by God in ways that change and improve their lives and the lives of others.

Visitors are encouraged to fill out a blue pew card and place it in the offering box in the Crossing. Please ask a clergy person or usher if you have questions. All are welcome—if you are looking for a church home, you have one here.

About Receiving Communion – Please know that this is God’s table and any person seeking to be fed from it will not be turned away. To receive the consecrated bread, extend your hands and it will be placed in your palm. Should you choose to receive the consecrated wine, you may guide the chalice gently to your mouth taking a small sip. Those desiring gluten-free Communion should ask the clergy when coming forward for Communion.

Anyone may come forward at the time of Communion and receive the blessing instead, by crossing your arms across your chest. When returning to your seat after making your communion, please return to your pew by using the side aisles. At 11:00 a.m., Communion is offered at the High Altar, and in Grace Chapel, a barrier-free location to the left of the pulpit. Prayers for healing, for you or another, are offered in the Chapel of the Intercession (at the front of the Cathedral on the right-hand side) during Communion.

About Children and Worship – Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me, for to them belongs the Kingdom of God.” We believe that the place of a child is in worship in the Cathedral. We hope you will help them follow the service, sing the hymns, and use the bulletin and Prayerbook. At the back of Grace Chapel, there is a soft space available. If you feel the need to step out, we have space in the Parlor which has the livestream of the service, so you can follow along that way.
