All are invited to participate with the Altar Guild in a workday to begin preparing the Cathedral for Advent as well as the arrival of our new Dean. We'll gather after the 11:00 a.m. service to roll-up our sleeves.

Care Fair – November 23

Our next Care Fair is November 23. This collaboration between our Feeding Hungry People Ministry, All.together, CHIP, and FedUp Ministries provides laundry services, shower services, health services, a place to worship, and take-away food to our Midtown Detroit community and beyond. Laundry, shower, and food services will be available in the back parking lot, and our CHIP walk-in clinic will be set up in Barth Hall starting at 9:15 a.m. All services are available from 9:00 until 11:00 a.m. If you are interested in volunteering or making an offering towards this Ministry, or if you have any questions please reach out to our Staff Liaison Meriem Lanseur at mlanseur@detroitcathedral.org or call the Cathedral Office at 313.833.4409.

Advent Bazaar – Sunday December 7

With the unfortunate news that Noël Night this year has been postponed, and in an effort to continue to provide our community with seasonal programming, the Cathedral will be hosting an Advent Bazaar on Sunday, December 7, 1:00 -3:00 p.m. in Barth Hall. This event will be open and welcome to all and will include numerous opportunities to support and celebrate our Midtown Community. More details will come, but please mark your calendars so you don't miss it!

News / Announcements / Opportunities to Serve

November 9, 2025

Welcome! Our vision is to be an extraordinary spiritual gathering place where people of all backgrounds and ages are welcome to question and learn, pray, worship and serve; being loved by God in ways that change and improve their lives and the lives of others.

Visitors are encouraged to fill out a blue pew card and place it in the offering box in the Crossing. Please ask a clergy person or usher if you have questions. All are welcome—if you are looking for a church home, you have one here.

About Receiving Communion – Please know that this is God’s table and any person seeking to be fed from it will not be turned away. To receive the consecrated bread, extend your hands and it will be placed in your palm. Should you choose to receive the consecrated wine, you may guide the chalice gently to your mouth taking a small sip. Those desiring gluten-free Communion should ask the clergy when coming forward for Communion.

Anyone may come forward at the time of Communion and receive the blessing instead, by crossing your arms across your chest. When returning to your seat after making your communion, please return to your pew by using the side aisles. At 11:00 a.m., Communion is offered at the High Altar, and in Grace Chapel, a barrier-free location to the left of the pulpit. Prayers for healing, for you or another, are offered in the Chapel of the Intercession (at the front of the Cathedral on the right-hand side) during Communion.

About Children and Worship – Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me, for to them belongs the Kingdom of God.” We believe that the place of a child is in worship in the Cathedral. We hope you will help them follow the service, sing the hymns, and use the bulletin and Prayerbook. At the back of Grace Chapel, there is a soft space available. If you feel the need to step out, we have space in the Parlor which has the livestream of the service, so you can follow along that way.
