Care Fair Today

A collaboration between our Feeding Hungry People Ministry, All.together, CHIP, and FedUp Ministries.
The CHIP walk-in clinic will be set up in Barth Hall starting at 9:15 a.m. A meal is available from 9:00 until 11:00 a.m. Please stop in Barth Hall for instructions.

Choral Evensong for the Annunciation – TODAY at 4:00 p.m.

Choral Evensong is offered this afternoon as we anticipate the Feast of the Annunciation, which commemorates the angel Gabriel's announcement to Mary that she would give birth to the Messiah. The service will be sung by the Cathedral Choir with guest organist Glenn Miller.

Holy Week and Easter Services

A complete list of services Palm Sunday through Easter Day is included in your bulletin this morning.

The Stations of the Cross

The Stations of the Cross is offered each Friday in Lent at 12:10 p.m.

Easter Egg Hunt – candy donations requested

The Annual Easter Egg Hunt will take place at 10:00 a.m. on Easter Day (April 5). We ask you to donate individually wrapped candy or non-food items for this event. Please place any donations in the marked container in the Gallery by Sunday, March 29. We are thankful for your support and donations to make this Easter Egg Hunt Possible. Please contact Carmen Piggins at cpiggins@edomi.org with any questions.

Easter Flowers

Easter flower donation forms are available on the table in the Gallery. Please note the deadline for submission of thanksgivings and memorials for the Easter bulletins, and thank you for your help in adorning the Cathedral for Easter services.

E-mail Scams

How to Spot Scam Emails: A Basic Guide is now available on the main page of the Cathedral's website (detroitcathedral.org) for your reference. This short guide offers helpful tips for recognizing phishing emails and protecting your personal information. We encourage all congregation members to review it and stay informed. Hard copies are available on the bulletin board in the Gallery. If you have any questions, please contact info@detroitcathedral.org or speak directly with our Parish Coordinator, Erin McClellan.

Be a Coffee Hour Host

We invite you to consider helping with Cathedral hospitality by signing-up to host a coffee hour after an 11:00 a.m. Sunday service. For more information see the bulletin board in the Gallery.

Weekday services in the Cathedral

Weekday services in the Cathedral have been restored. A brief service of Holy Eucharist is offered on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 12:10 p.m. in Grace Chapel.

Personnel Update

Associate Organist and Communications Coordinator, Edward Poston, is stepping down from his position on the staff effective March 31. We wish Mr. Poston the best in his transition to a new post. Dean Alsay and Canon Tarrant are currently exploring a candidate to succeed Mr. Poston, with the goal of having a new person in this vital role before the end of the current choir season.

Cathedral Crafters

Cathedral Crafters meet on the first and third Tuesdays of the month at 12:30 p.m. in the Cathedral Library, where we knit or do other needle crafts. Anyone who knits or would like to learn how to knit is welcome. For questions, please contact info@detroitcathedral.org.

Do you know a child who likes to sing?

The Cathedral Choir School of Metropolitan Detroit is a not-for-profit, extra-curricular outreach program providing an excellent, fundamental music education to children in the metropolitan Detroit, and is open to all youth, regardless of religious affiliation. Choristers focus on vocal technique, musicianship, and citizenship in the context of the liturgical life of the Cathedral, emerging from this experience with a deep love of fine arts, enhanced self-confidence, and an ability to work collaboratively. To speak further with someone about the program, please contact Mr. Jeremy David Tarrant, Cathedral Organist and Choirmaster: (313) 833-7547 jtarrant@detroitcathedral.org. Visit us on the web at www.detroitcathedral.org.

News / Announcements / Opportunities to Serve

March 22, 2026

Welcome! Our vision is to be an extraordinary spiritual gathering place where people of all backgrounds and ages are welcome to question and learn, pray, worship and serve; being loved by God in ways that change and improve their lives and the lives of others.

Visitors are encouraged to fill out a blue pew card and place it in the offering box in the Crossing. Please ask a clergy person or usher if you have questions. All are welcome—if you are looking for a church home, you have one here.

About Receiving Communion – Please know that this is God’s table and any person seeking to be fed from it will not be turned away. To receive the consecrated bread, extend your hands and it will be placed in your palm. Should you choose to receive the consecrated wine, you may guide the chalice gently to your mouth taking a small sip. Those desiring gluten-free Communion should ask the clergy when coming forward for Communion.

Anyone may come forward at the time of Communion and receive the blessing instead, by crossing your arms across your chest. When returning to your seat after making your communion, please return to your pew by using the side aisles. At 11:00 a.m., Communion is offered at the High Altar, and in Grace Chapel, a barrier-free location to the left of the pulpit. Prayers for healing, for you or another, are offered in the Chapel of the Intercession (at the front of the Cathedral on the right-hand side) during Communion.

About Children and Worship – Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me, for to them belongs the Kingdom of God.” We believe that the place of a child is in worship in the Cathedral. We hope you will help them follow the service, sing the hymns, and use the bulletin and Prayerbook. At the back of Grace Chapel, there is a soft space available. If you feel the need to step out, we have space in the Parlor which has the livestream of the service, so you can follow along that way.
