Holy Week and Easter Services

A complete list of services, Holy Week through Easter Day is included in your bulletin this morning.

Easter Flowers

Easter flower donation forms are available on the table in the Gallery. Those submitted by 12 Noon tomorrow (March 30) can still have thanksgivings and memorials listed in the Easter bulletins. Thank you for your help in adorning the Cathedral for Easter services.

From our Senior Warden, Dr. George Swan III

Do you have CPR training or would like to earn a CPR/AED certification? We are looking to develop a Cathedral team to participate in CPR/AED training and support our community of Faith in an emergency. If you're interested, please email the Senior Warden George Swan at george.swaniii@gmail.com.

The Vestry has approved the Cathedral Safe Church—Creating a Healthy Environment for Children, Youth and Vulnerable Adults Policy. This requires all who serve in a Cathedral ministry—paid or volunteer—to complete training specific to your role. The training can be done online at your own pace. We want everyone to complete the training to be in compliance with the Canons of our Diocese. To enroll, go to <https://www.edomi.org/safechurch>. The code to register is reg-episdiomi-313-cathedralchurchdetroit. Select the appropriate role and the training is customized for you. If you have questions, please contact George Swan at george.swaniii@gmail.com.

Be a Coffee Hour Host

We invite you to consider helping with Cathedral hospitality by signing-up to host a coffee hour after an 11:00 a.m. Sunday service. For more information see the bulletin board in the Gallery.

Music at Mid-day resumes

Our bi-weekly series of free, 30-minute organ recitals resumes:

Friday, April 10, 12:30 p.m. James Kibbie, Professor of Organ Emeritus, the University of Michigan

Friday, April 24, 12:30 p.m. Timothy Huth, Organist, First Congregational Church, Ann Arbor

The Cathedral Staff Singers in Concert – April 24, 7:30 p.m.

The Cathedral Music Society presents members of our professional choral music staff in a song recital to benefit the Ruth Ellis Center. Named in honor of a resilient Detroit icon, Ruth Ellis Center works to create a supportive environment and community for LGBTQ+ young people. The program will feature music of Franz Schubert, Grey Grant, Samuel Barber, Florence Price, William Grant Still, Vaughan Williams, and others. All donations will directly benefit the Ruth Ellis Center, so please be generous and give what you can. Learn more about Ruth Ellis Center here: www.ruthelliscenter.org

Second Annual Volunteer Luncheon – May 3

Calling all volunteers in all Cathedral ministries! Join us for our Second Annual Volunteer Luncheon on May 3 in Barth Hall from 12:30–3:00 p.m.! This event is a celebration of our Cathedral volunteers, with a plated meal, fellowship, and time to reminisce and enjoy one another's company. We are so grateful for all that you do and look forward to honoring you. Interested in volunteering at the Cathedral and joining us? There's still time! Please contact Erin McClellan at emcclellan@detroitcathedral.org.

Cathedral Crafters

Cathedral Crafters meet on the first and third Tuesdays of the month at 12:30 p.m. in the Cathedral Library, where we knit or do other needle crafts. Anyone who knits or would like to learn how to knit is welcome. For questions, please contact info@detroitcathedral.org.

Do you know a child who likes to sing?

The Cathedral Choir School of Metropolitan Detroit is a not-for-profit, extra-curricular outreach program providing an excellent, fundamental music education to children in the metropolitan Detroit, and is open to all youth, regardless of religious affiliation. Choristers focus on vocal technique, musicianship, and citizenship in the context of the liturgical life of the Cathedral, emerging from this experience with a deep love of fine arts, enhanced self-confidence, and an ability to work collaboratively. To speak further with someone about the program, please contact Mr. Jeremy David Tarrant, Cathedral Organist and Choirmaster: (313) 833-7547 jtarrant@detroitcathedral.org. Visit us on the web at www.detroitcathedral.org.

News / Announcements / Opportunities to Serve

March 29, 2026

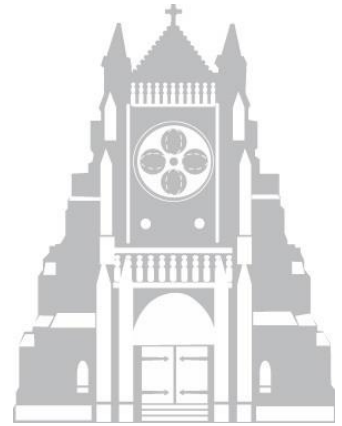

Welcome! Our vision is to be an extraordinary spiritual gathering place where people of all backgrounds and ages are welcome to question and learn, pray, worship and serve; being loved by God in ways that change and improve their lives and the lives of others.

Visitors are encouraged to fill out a blue pew card and place it in the offering box in the Crossing. Please ask a clergy person or usher if you have questions. All are welcome—if you are looking for a church home, you have one here.

About Receiving Communion – Please know that this is God’s table and any person seeking to be fed from it will not be turned away. To receive the consecrated bread, extend your hands and it will be placed in your palm. Should you choose to receive the consecrated wine, you may guide the chalice gently to your mouth taking a small sip. Those desiring gluten-free Communion should ask the clergy when coming forward for Communion.

Anyone may come forward at the time of Communion and receive the blessing instead, by crossing your arms across your chest. When returning to your seat after making your communion, please return to your pew by using the side aisles. At 11:00 a.m., Communion is offered at the High Altar, and in Grace Chapel, a barrier-free location to the left of the pulpit. Prayers for healing, for you or another, are offered in the Chapel of the Intercession (at the front of the Cathedral on the right-hand side) during Communion.

About Children and Worship – Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me, for to them belongs the Kingdom of God.” We believe that the place of a child is in worship in the Cathedral. We hope you will help them follow the service, sing the hymns, and use the bulletin and Prayerbook. At the back of Grace Chapel, there is a soft space available. If you feel the need to step out, we have space in the Parlor which has the livestream of the service, so you can follow along that way.
