THE TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Choral Evensong, 4:00 p.m.

with THE CATHEDRAL CHOIR

WELCOME! Our vision is to be an extraordinary spiritual gathering place where people of all backgrounds and ages are welcome to question and learn, pray, worship and serve; being loved by God in ways that change and improve their lives and the lives of others. This service is also live-streamed on our YouTube channel.

CONCERNING THE SERVICE

Choral Evensong is an offering in song to God, the giver of all beauty and goodness. Based on services held daily in the medieval Church, Evensong as arranged in the Book of Common Prayer of the Anglican Church has been sung regularly since the sixteenth century. This atmospheric and deeply personal form of worship appeals to persons of many faiths and has been adopted as an American tradition in many parishes and cathedrals of the Episcopal Church. In this service most of the music is sung by the Choir, and the Congregation participates by listening to and meditating on the praises, prayers and petitions offered. All join the Choir in singing the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the hymns.

After the introduction to the service (the Hymn or Introit, and the Preces), the Choir sings the appointed psalm(s). A lesson, usually from the Old Testament (except on Saints' Days and in Easter season), follows. The Choir then sings the first of the traditional Evening Canticles, the Magnificat, the song of the Blessed Virgin Mary when the promises of the Old Testament came true (Luke 1). A lesson from the New Testament proclaims the good news of Jesus Christ, and this is followed by the Nunc Dimittis, the song of the aged Simeon when he had seen our Lord in the Temple at Jerusalem (Luke 2). The Nunc Dimittis is a particularly appropriate text at the end of one's day.

All then sing the Apostles' Creed, an expression of faith of those who, generation by generation in the Christian Church, respond to the Gospel of Jesus Christ, crucified and alive. Prayers are sung by the Choir, ending with the Collects which collect our thoughts.

The timeless and simple liturgy of Evensong readily embraces musical expressions from many centuries. In Choral Evensong, the Choir's responses are drawn from the 1928 Book of Common Prayer, which remains the standard form of text for almost all musical settings of this liturgy owing to the unique beauty of its cadences and imagery.

Evensong is offered each Sunday at 4:00 p.m., September through May. Cathedral Evensong with hymns and canticles sung by cantor and congregation is offered on the first and third Sundays of the month, and Choral Evensong, sung by one of our choirs is offered on the Second and Fourth Sundays of the month. There are occasional exceptions to this pattern.

At the bell, please stand as you are able. The Procession enters, then the Choir sings,

INTROIT

Edward C. Bairstow (1874-1946)

I SAT DOWN under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste.
He brought me to the banqueting house, and his banner over me was love. Song of Songs 2:3,4

The Officiant says,

THE OPENING SENTENCES

O YE ANGELS OF THE LORD, bless ye the Lord;
praise him and magnify him for ever. — Psalm 103:20

THEIR SOUND HAS GONE OUT into all lands, and their message to the ends of the world. — Psalm 19:4

The Congregation remains standing and the Choir sings

THE PRECES

Martin Neary (1940-2025)

- V. O Lord, open thou our lips:
R. And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.
V. O God, make speed to save us:
R. O Lord, make haste to help us.
V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
R. as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
V. Praise ye the Lord!
R. The Lord's Name be praised!

The Choir continues with

PSALM 111

Confitebor tibi

Chant: George Elvey (1816-1893)

HALLELUJAH! I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart, * in the assembly of the upright, in the congregation.

- 2 Great are the deeds of the LORD! *
they are studied by all who delight in them.
3 His work is full of majesty and splendor, *
and his righteousness endures for ever.
4 He makes his marvelous works to be remembered; *
the LORD is gracious and full of compassion.
5 He gives food to those who fear him; *
he is ever mindful of his covenant.
6 He has shown his people the power of his works * in giving them the lands of the nations.
7 The works of his hands are faithfulness and justice; *
all his commandments are sure.
8 They stand fast for ever and ever, *
because they are done in truth and equity.

- 9 He sent redemption to his people; he commanded his covenant for ever; *
holy and awesome is his Name.
- 10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; *
those who act accordingly have a good understanding; his praise endures for ever.
- Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Please be seated.

THE FIRST LESSON

Jeremiah 36:1-10

IN THE FOURTH YEAR OF KING JEHOIAKIM, son of Josiah of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD: Take a scroll and write on it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel and Judah and all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah until today. It may be that, when the house of Judah hears of all the disasters that I intend to do to them, all of them may turn from their evil ways, so that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin. Then Jeremiah called Baruch son of Neriah, and Baruch wrote on a scroll at Jeremiah's dictation all the words that the LORD had spoken to him. And Jeremiah ordered Baruch, saying, "I am prevented from entering the house of the LORD, so you go, and on a fast day in the hearing of the people in the LORD'S house you shall read the words of the LORD from the scroll that you have written at my dictation. You shall read them also in the hearing of all the people of Judah who come up from their towns. It may be that their plea will come before the LORD and that all of them will turn from their evil ways, for great is the anger and wrath that the LORD has pronounced against this people." And Baruch son of Neriah did all that the prophet Jeremiah ordered him about reading from the scroll the words of the LORD in the LORD'S house. In the fifth year of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah, in the ninth month, all the people in Jerusalem and all the people who came from the towns of Judah to Jerusalem proclaimed a fast before the LORD. Then, in the hearing of all the people, Baruch read the words of Jeremiah from the scroll, in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah son of Shaphan the secretary, which was in the upper court, at the entry of the New Gate of the LORD'S house.

The Choir then sings

MAGNIFICAT

A. Herbert Brewer (1865-1928) in D

MY SOUL doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior.
For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me, and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him throughout all generations.
He hath showed strength with his arm;
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat,
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things,
and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel, as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.

Please stand as you are able.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost:
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Please be seated.

THE SECOND LESSON

1 Corinthians 4:9-16

FOR I THINK THAT GOD has exhibited us apostles as last of all, as though sentenced to death, because we have become a spectacle to the world, to angels and to humans. We are fools for the sake of Christ, but you are sensible people in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are honored, but we are dishonored. To the present hour we are hungry and thirsty, we are naked and beaten and homeless, and we grow weary from the work of our own hands. When reviled, we bless; when persecuted, we endure; when slandered, we speak kindly. We have become like the rubbish of the world, the dregs of all things, to this very day. I am not writing this to make you ashamed but to admonish you as my beloved children. For though you might have ten thousand guardians in Christ, you do not have many fathers. Indeed, in Christ Jesus I fathered you through the gospel. I appeal to you, then, be imitators of me.

The Choir then sings

NUNC DIMITTIS

Brewer in D

LORD, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace,
according to thy word;
For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,
which thou hast prepared before the face of all people,
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles, and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Please stand as you are able.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

All sing together on one note

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I BELIEVE IN GOD, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth.
AND IN JESUS CHRIST his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried.
He descended into hell.
The third day he rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father almighty.
From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I BELIEVE IN THE HOLY GHOST,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, ✠
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Choir sings

THE LESSER LITANY

Neary

V. The Lord be with you.
R. And with thy spirit.
V. Let us pray.
R. Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

All sing on one note

THE LORD'S PRAYER

OUR FATHER, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

The Choir sings

THE RESPONSES

Neary

V. O Lord, shew thy mercy upon us;
R. And grant us thy salvation.
V. O Lord, save the State;
R. And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.
V. Endue thy ministers with righteousness;
R. And make thy chosen people joyful.
V. O Lord, save thy people;
R. And bless thine inheritance.
V. Give peace in our time, O Lord;
R. Because there is none other that fighteth for us, but only thou, O God.
V. O God, make clean our hearts within us;
R. And take not thy Holy Spirit from us.

THE COLLECTS

The Collect of the Day

LORD, WE PRAY THAT THY GRACE may always precede and follow us, that we may continually be given to good works; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Collect for Sundays

LORD GOD, whose Son our Savior Jesus Christ triumphed over the powers of death and prepared for us our place in the new Jerusalem: Grant that we, who have this day given thanks for his resurrection, may praise thee in that City of which he is the light; and where he liveth and reigneth for ever and ever. Amen.

A Collect for Mission

KEEP WATCH, DEAR LORD, with those who work, or watch, or weep this night, and give thine angels charge over those who sleep. Tend the sick, Lord Christ; give rest to the weary, bless the dying, soothe the suffering, pity the afflicted, shield the joyous; and all for thy love's sake. Amen.

Please join in singing,

HYMN 662

Eventide

1. A - bid with me: fast falls the e - ven - tide;
2. I need thy pres - ence ev - 'ry pass - ing hour;
3. I fear no foe, with thee at hand to bless;
4. Hold thou thy cross be - fore my clos - ing eyes;
the dark - ness deep - ens; Lord, with me a - bid:
what but thy grace can foil the temp - ter's pow'r?
ills have no weight, and tears no bit - ter - ness.
shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
when o - ther help - ers fail and com - forts flee,
Who, like thy - self, my guide and stay can be?
Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy vic - to - ry?
heav'n's morn - ing breaks, and earth's vain sha - dows flee; help of the help - less, O a - bid with me.
Through cloud and sun - shine, Lord, a - bid with me.
I tri - umph still, if thou a - bid with me.
In life, in death, O Lord, a - bid with me!

Words Henry Francis Lyte (1793-1847)

Music Eventide, William Henry Monk (1823-1889)

THE HOMILY

The Very Reverend Joseph Caldwell Alsay

The Choir sings

ANTHEM

Judith Weir (b. 1954)

I LOVE ALL BEAUTEIOUS THINGS, I seek and adore them;
God hath no better praise, and man in hasty days is honored for them.
I too will something make and joy in the making;
Altho' tomorrow it seem like the empty words of a dream remembered on waking.

Robert Bridges (1844-1930)

Please kneel as you are able.

THE PRAYERS OF THANKSGIVING & INTERCESSIONS

Please stand as you are able. All say together

THE GENERAL THANKSGIVING

ALMIGHTY GOD, Father of all mercies, we thine unworthy servants do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving kindness us and to all whom thou hast made.
We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life;
but above all for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ, for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory.
And, we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies,
that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful;
and that we show forth thy praise,
not only with our lips, but in our lives,
by giving up our selves to thy service,
and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost,
be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

The Officiant says

THE GRACE

THE GRACE OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen. — 2 Corinthians 13:14

The Choir sings

THE FINAL RESPONSES

Edward Naylor (1867-1934)

V. The Lord be with you.
R. And with thy spirit.
V. The Lord give us his peace.
R. And life eternal. Amen.

Please remain standing as the Procession leaves the Cathedral during the Voluntary.

INTERCESSIONS & THANKSGIVINGS

We give thanks for Cathedral parishioners and friends celebrating birthdays this week: Janice, Sr. Vee, Kathryn, Jennifer, Uziechi, Trevor, Paula, Chinenye, Constance, and Rhonda.

We pray for the repose of the souls of Betty Weber and Rita Paulsine.

We lift up those for whom prayers have been requested: Gregory, Ron, Mike, Judy, Nancy, Karen, Terry, Charlene, Anthony, Gwen, Corris, Alan, Lydia, Shirley, David, Richard, Jayasuresh, Prema, Dave, Ralph, Joan, Mary, Dean, Jim & Family, Monica & Family, George, Liam, Karen & Tom, Wes, Angela, Marilyn, Anthony, and Casey. You may add yourself or a loved one to this list by calling 313.833.4409 or e-mailing us at: info@detroitcathedral.org.

We pray for those in uniform serving our country at home and abroad. We pray for peace throughout the world. Hasten, O Lord, our commitment to justice and peace for all God's people. We pray for an end to the gun violence which plagues our nation. Give solace to grieving communities and bring peace to anxious hearts. Help us to remember that fervent prayer must be coupled with bold action.

We pray for Sarah, Archbishop of Canterbury; Sean, Presiding Bishop; Bonnie, our Bishop; for Yehiel, Presiding Bishop of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America; Donald and Julie, Lutheran Bishops in Lower Michigan; and for Moisés, Bishop of the Dominican Republic. In the Anglican Cycle of Prayer we pray for The Anglican Church of Burundi. In the Diocesan Cycle of Prayer we pray for Trinity Church, Farmington Hills; and Holy Trinity Church, Santo Domingo, in the Dominican Republic.

News / Announcements / Opportunities to Serve

THE FEEDING HUNGRY PEOPLE (FHP) COMMITTEE A long-standing committee for the past two decades, FHP serves food and provides support and care to our neighbors in need through acts of service at the Cathedral. It continues to operate to coordinate volunteers and community members interested in serving others through food and supportive services. We are proud to announce that Layla and Brandon King have accepted the roles of Chair and Co-Chair and will help the committee expand, grow, and become a hub of care and support at the Cathedral in Midtown Detroit. If you are interested in joining the FHP Committee and participating in its work to care for our community, please contact Layla King at layla.noor98@gmail.com.

SUNDAY EVENSONG SERVICES AT 4:00 P.M. Evensong is offered each Sunday at 4:00 p.m., alternating with Choral Evensong (sung by one of the Cathedral Choirs) and Cathedral Evensong (sung by Cantors & Congregation). We will also welcome a number of guest preachers to offer the homily throughout the season.

CATHEDRAL CRAFTERS Cathedral Crafters meet on the first and third Tuesdays of the month at 12:30pm in the Cathedral Library, where we knit or do other needle crafts. Anyone who knits or would like to learn how to knit is welcome! For questions, please contact info@detroitcathedral.org

HONORING THOSE IN THE MEDICAL FIELD ON THE FEAST OF ST. LUKE – OCTOBER 18 The Cathedral has a long connection with our medical community and the Detroit Medical Center. We will honor all who work in the medical community, in any capacity, on St. Luke's Day. From doctors and nurses and therapists to first responders and office personnel – everyone working in the medical field, we wish to honor you. Please reach out and let us know who you are by e-mailing Erin in the Cathedral Office at info@detroitcathedral.org

DINNER CHURCH & REEL FAITH BEGINS WEDNESDAY, OCT. 21 This past Lent and summer we started a new Adult Formation opportunity. The response was so incredible and overwhelming, that its return was requested for the Fall of 2026. So, back by popular demand, is our Dinner Church & Formation series focusing on “The Chosen,” an amazing, biblically-centered television series. This mini-series places us within the historical setting of Jesus’ days on earth, while offering us an opportunity to gain a deeper insight into his life and ministry in a new and provocative manner. This formation class will be supported by reading of the Gospels; reflection on poignant questions; and engaging group interaction! We invite new and returning participants to join us on Wednesdays beginning, October 21 through November 18. Eucharist and Dinner begin at 6:00 p.m. followed by Formation from 6:45-8:00 p.m.

THE NEXT MUSIC @ MID-DAY CONCERT – FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23, 12:30 P.M. We look forward to welcoming students from the Organ Department of The University of Michigan’s School of Music, Theatre, and Dance. A complete schedule of concerts can be viewed by taking a booklet from the Narthex or Gallery, as well as using this link: <https://tinyurl.com/MusicatMidDay2627>

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE & ALTAR OF THE DEAD On Sunday, November 1st we will celebrate the Feasts of All Saints and All Souls. As part of that celebration, we would ask that you write the names of your loved ones you want listed in our Book of Remembrance on the clipboards provided in the Gallery or by e-mailing Erin in the Cathedral Office at info@detroitcathedral.org by Tuesday, October 27. In addition to the Book of Remembrance, we will create an Altar of the Dead. This tradition has its origin in the Hispanic culture’s Dia de los Muertos (Day of the Dead), a holiday that honors departed family members. Ofrendas (Altars) are traditionally decorated with bright flowers, candles, incense, photos, and favorite foods and drinks of those being honored. If you would like to drop off pictures, mementos, or other items for the altar, please bring them to the Cathedral Office by Wednesday, October 28.

WILLIAMS PAVILION LITTLE FOOD PANTRY A HUGE thank you to each person who is contributing to our Free Little Pantry at Williams Pavilion. Your continued support of this ministry helps meet the needs of residents that might not be otherwise met. Please continue to take sticky notes and donate items. This will be an ongoing ministry of the Cathedral! Williams Pavilion is a housing community in Detroit that provides affordable apartments for low-income senior citizens, and we are excited to introduce the Williams Pavilion Little Food Pantry, which will support residents who live on fixed income and will help to supplement necessary items. Donation items are posted on the bulletin board in the Gallery. Please take a sticky note with the needed item and return the purchased item to the cart under the bulletin board.

INTERESTED IN JOINING THE CATHEDRAL CHOIR? Adults desiring to learn more about participation in the Cathedral choirs are warmly invited to contact Canon Tarrant at music@detroitcathedral.org, or by calling 313.833.7547.

JOIN US FOR COMPLINE EVERY NIGHT AT 8:00 P.M. Compline is the final service of the day in the Christian tradition. It is a peaceful time of prayer, reflection, and thanksgiving before we rest for the night. Each evening at 8:00 p.m., the Cathedral community gathers on our Facebook page (QR Code to the Right) for Compline, led by the Dean of the Cathedral, lay leaders, and parishioners/members. Whether you join us every night or simply stop by when you need a moment of peace, you are always welcome. Come as you are, pause from the busyness of the day, and close your evening with the Cathedral community. We look forward to seeing you online and remaining connected with you throughout the week.

FALL 2026 STEWARDSHIP CAMPAIGN Our Annual Stewardship campaign has begun with this year’s theme being Live Testimonies: Stewarding Our Stories. Over the next five weeks this theme will be elaborated on in letters, emails, and a video from our Stewardship Committee members. In the weeks leading up to the Ingathering of Pledges on Sunday, November 1st, we will make every effort to inform and inspire your financial commitment. On that day we ask you to attend worship, place your commitment for the future mission and ministry of the Cathedral on the altar, and join in a Celebration Brunch after the 11:00 service. Thank you for all that you do for our church and for the world. We ask that you pray with us as we launch this campaign and, in prayer, consider what you can contribute to our work in 2027 and beyond.

THE CATHEDRAL CHOIR SCHOOL OF METROPOLITAN DETROIT is a not-for-profit outreach program of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul in cooperation with Cathedral Community Services. The Choir School provides an excellent, fundamental music education to children in the metropolitan Detroit region, and is open to all youth, regardless of religious affiliation. Choristers focus on vocal technique, musicianship, and citizenship in the context of the liturgical life of the Cathedral. The Choir School is a community that, while focused on music, is a systematic, long-term investment in young people. Children emerge from this experience with a deep love of fine arts, enhanced self-confidence, and an ability to work collaboratively. To schedule a try-out or to speak further with someone about the program, please contact Mr. Jeremy David Tarrant, Organist & Choirmaster: (313) 833-7547 or jtarrant@detroitcathedral.org.

HERE ARE SOME FAST FACTS:

- No previous musical or voice training is required or expected!
- Children need not be Episcopalian. The Choir is open to children of all faiths and backgrounds.
- Boys and Girls form the treble (soprano) section of the famed Cathedral Choir, involving consistent application of their developing musical skills, while singing the finest in choral music from all periods and in a variety of languages.
- A brief, informal try-out assesses a child's readiness for the program.
- Children showing a strong commitment to the Choir are eligible for reduced-tuition piano lessons and summer camps.
