Solemn Procession & Festal Sung Eucharist

WELCOME TO THE CATHEDRAL!

OUR VISION is to be an extraordinary spiritual gathering place where people of all backgrounds and ages are welcome to question and learn, pray, worship and serve; being loved by God in ways that change and improve their lives and the lives of others.

VISITORS are encouraged to fill out a Cathedral Connection Card included with your bulletin and place it in the offering plate or hand it to a clergy-person after the service. PRAYER REQUESTS can also be made on this card. Please ask a clergy person or usher if you have questions. All are welcome — if you are looking for a church home, you have one here!

PARTICIPATING IN WORSHIP Here at St. Paul's we believe in worshiping with our entire being and all our senses (sight, hearing, voice, smell, touch, taste, etc.) It is our hope that you will join in with us in singing of the hymns and service music and in the speaking of corporate prayers by making use of this printed order of service and the directions (in red) included within it.

Of particular note is making the sign of the cross at specific moments within the liturgy (indicated by ✠). As with kneeling or taking communion, no one is required to 'cross themselves', however, this small-but-powerful physical gesture is one of the ways worshipers can take active part in the service with their whole being.

ABOUT CHILDREN IN WORSHIP Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, for unto them belongs the Kingdom of God." Here at the Cathedral, we believe that the place of a child is in worship. We hope you will help your little ones follow the service, sing the hymns, and use the bulletin. At the back of Grace Chapel, on the left, front side of the church, there is a soft space available with toys, age-appropriate books, and games.

LEARNING THE LITURGY – WHERE ARE THEY OFF TO? Solemn Processions are a liturgical tradition usually reserved for the highest feast days in the church year. Most services begin with a 'entrance' procession, which simply serves as a functional way for the cross, choir, and altar party to get from the church's entrance into the chancel or wherever the service begins. Such processions are a visual cue for the congregation that divine worship has begun and the cross that leads them represents Christ coming in amongst us. A solemn procession differs from an entrance procession in that it usually begins from the chancel or front of the nave and moves around the entire church, down all the side aisles and back to the front. Occasionally these processions feature one or more 'stations' or stops along the way, usually at important locations throughout the nave (i.e. the font, an icon, or a side chapel). A collect is often prayed at these stations and the particular icon, font, statue, etc. is often blessed with incense and/or holy water. A solemn procession is a visual and physical celebration making use of the entire building for the joyous divine worship.

✠ THE WORD OF GOD ✠

THE FIRST LESSON

Revelation 7:9-17

AFTER THIS I, JOHN, LOOKED, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying, "Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen." Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Benedicam Dominum

Chant: Thomas Norris (1741-1790)

- I WILL BLESS THE LORD at all times; *
his praise shall ever be in my mouth.
2 I will glory in the LORD; *
let the humble hear and rejoice.
3 Proclaim with me the greatness of the LORD; *
let us exalt his Name together.
4 I sought the LORD, and he answered me *
and delivered me out of all my terror.
5 Look upon him and be radiant, *
and let not your faces be ashamed.
6 I called in my affliction and the LORD heard me *
and saved me from all my troubles.

- 7 The angel of the LORD encompasses those who fear him, *
and he will deliver them.
- 8 Taste and see that the LORD is good; *
happy are they who trust in him!
- 9 Fear the LORD, you that are his saints, *
for those who fear him lack nothing.
- 10 The young lions lack and suffer hunger, *
but those who seek the LORD lack nothing that is good.
- 22 The LORD ransoms the life of his servants, *
and none will be punished who trust in him.

THE EPISTLE

1 John 3:1-3

SEE WHAT LOVE the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

THE GOSPEL

Saint Matthew 5:1-12

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew ✠.

People Glory to you Lord, Christ.

WHEN JESUS SAW THE CROWDS, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

THE RENEWAL OF BAPTISMAL VOWS

Celebrant Dear People of God: In Holy Baptism we have become part of that great fellowship of believers in all times and places: the Communion of Saints. In baptism God has adopted us as children and made us members of Christ's body and inheritors of God's kingdom with the saints in the light. Let us now renew the vows of our baptism by which God has made us a holy people.

People Do you reaffirm your renunciation of evil and renew your commitment to Jesus Christ?
I do.

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Father?

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Celebrant Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

People I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, ✠ and the life everlasting.

Celebrant Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?
People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?
People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?
People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord.
People Amen.

THE ASPERGES

The People are then sprinkled with Holy Water as the Choir sings

I SAW WATER FLOWING from the right side of the temple, Alleluia.
It brought God's life and his salvation, and the people sang in joyful praise; Alleluia, alleluia.

Vidi aquam, from Ezekiel 47

THE PEACE

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you!
People And also with you!

✠ THE HOLY COMMUNION ✠

DONATE WITH E-GIVING HERE:

We are now prepared for the miracle of the Holy Communion. The Offertory gives us a chance to offer back to God some of what God has given us, symbolically in the bread and wine, in the money we give, and spiritually in the offering of ourselves. The Cathedral thanks you for your generosity, which allows the clergy, staff, and congregation to continue to minister to Detroit and the greater metropolitan region.

AT THE OFFERTORY, ANTHEM

Edward C. Bairstow (1874-1946)

BLESSED CITY, Heavenly Salem, vision dear of peace and love,
Who of living stones art builded in the height of heaven above,
And by angel hands apparelled as a bride doth earthward move!

Out of heaven from God descending, new and ready to be wed to thy Lord,
Whose love espoused thee, fair adorned shalt thou be led;
All thy gates and all thy bulwarks of pure gold are fashioned.
Bright thy gates of pearl are shining, they are open evermore;
And their well earned rest attaining thither faithful souls do soar.
Who for Christ's dear name in this world, pain and tribulation bore.

Many a blow and biting sculpture, polished well those stones elect,
In their places now compacted, by the heavenly Architect.
Nevermore to leave the Temple, which with them the Lord hath decked.
To this temple, where we call thee, come, O Lord of Hosts, today,
With thy wonted loving kindness, hear thy servants as they pray;
And thy fullest benediction, shed within its walls away. Amen.

9th century Latin hymn, trans. John Mason Neale (1818-1866)

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Celebrant The Lord be with you. People And al - so with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts. People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues

IT IS RIGHT, AND A GOOD AND JOYFUL THING, always and every-where to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For in the multitude of your saints you have surrounded us with a great cloud of witnesses, that we might rejoice in their fellowship, and run with endurance the race that is set before us; and, together with them, receive the crown of glory that never fades away.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

All sing,

The People stand or kneel. The Celebrant continues

HOLY AND GRACIOUS LORD: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Creator of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

ON THE NIGHT HE WAS HANDED OVER to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." ✠

AFTER SUPPER HE TOOK THE CUP OF WINE; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." ✠

Celebrant Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

People Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

WE CELEBRATE THE MEMORIAL OF OUR REDEMPTION, O Lord, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also ✠ that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

OUR FATHER, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated bread and a period of silence is kept, after which all sing.

AT THE COMMUNION, MOTET

C. Hubert Hastings Parry (1848-1918)
from Songs of Farewell

MY SOUL, there is a country far beyond the stars,
Where stands a wingèd sentry all skillful in the wars:
There, above noise and danger, Sweet Peace sits crown'd with smiles,
And One born in a manger commands the beauteous files.
He is thy gracious Friend, and — O my soul, awake!
Did in pure love descend to die here for thy sake.
If thou canst get but thither, there grows the flower of Peace,
The Rose that cannot wither, thy fortress, and thy ease.
Leave then thy foolish ranges; for none can thee secure
But One who never changes — Thy God, thy life, thy cure. Henry Vaughan (1621-1695)
