Holy Baptism & Festal Sung Eucharist

with The Cathedral Choir

October 18th, 2026

11:00 AM

WELCOME TO THE CATHEDRAL!

OUR VISION is to be an extraordinary spiritual gathering place where people of all backgrounds and ages are welcome to question and learn, pray, worship and serve; being loved by God in ways that change and improve their lives and the lives of others.

VISITORS are encouraged to fill out a Cathedral Connection Card included with your bulletin and place it in the offering plate or hand it to a clergy-person after the service. PRAYER REQUESTS can also be made on this card. Please ask a clergy person or usher if you have questions. All are welcome — if you are looking for a church home, you have one here!

PARTICIPATING IN WORSHIP Here at St. Paul's we believe in worshipping with our entire being and all our senses (sight, hearing, voice, smell, touch, taste, etc.) It is our hope that you will join in with us in singing of the hymns and service music and in the speaking of corporate prayers by making use of this printed order of service and the directions (in red) included within it.

Of particular note is making the sign of the cross at specific moments within the liturgy (indicated by ☩). As with kneeling or taking communion, no one is required to 'cross themselves', however, this small-but-powerful physical gesture is one of the ways worshipers can take active part in the service with their whole being.

ABOUT CHILDREN IN WORSHIP Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, for unto them belongs the Kingdom of God." Here at the Cathedral, we believe that the place of a child is in worship. We hope you will help your little ones follow the service, sing the hymns, and use the bulletin. At the back of Grace Chapel, on the left, front side of the church, there is a soft space available with toys, age-appropriate books, and games.

LEARNING THE LITURGY – TODAY'S FEATURED SAINT: St. Luke was a Gentile, a physician, and one of Paul's fellow missionaries in the early spread of Christianity throughout the Roman world. He has been identified as the author of both The Gospel of Luke and The Book of Acts. Luke apparently did not know Jesus, but was clearly inspired by hearing about him from those who had known him. The Gospel of Luke is not a full biography (none of the Gospels are), but a history of salvation. He therefore is careful to place the events of Jesus' life in both their social and religious contexts. Some of the most loved parables, including "The Good Samaritan" and "The Prodigal Son" are found only in this gospel. Luke's gospel has also given the church some of its most beautiful songs: the Benedictus ("Blessed be the Lord God of Israel...") sung at Morning Prayer, the Magnificat ("My soul doth magnify the Lord...") sung at Evening Prayer and the Nunc Dimittis ("Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace...") sung at the close of the day. These songs are powerful witnesses to the message of Jesus Christ.

✠ THE WORD OF GOD ✠

THE FIRST LESSON

Sirach 38:1-4, 6-10, 12-14

HONOR PHYSICIANS FOR THEIR SERVICES, for the LORD created them; for their gift of healing comes from the Most High, and they are rewarded by the king. The skill of physicians makes them distinguished, and in the presence of the great they are admired. The LORD created medicines out of the earth, and the sensible will not despise them. And he gave skill to human beings that he might be glorified in his marvelous works. By them the physician heals and takes away pain; the pharmacist makes a mixture from them. God's works will never be finished; and from him health spreads over all the earth. My child, when you are ill, do not delay, but pray to the LORD, and he will heal you. Give up your faults and direct your hands rightly, and cleanse your heart from all sin. Then give the physician his place, for the LORD created him; do not let him leave you, for you need him. There may come a time when recovery lies in the hands of physicians, for they too pray to the LORD that he grant them success in diagnosis and in healing, for the sake of preserving life.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Choir sings,

PSALM 147:1-7

Laudate Dominum

Chant: George Thalben-Ball (1896-1987)

HALLELUJAH! How good it is to sing praises to our God! *
how pleasant it is to honor him with praise!

- 2 The LORD rebuilds Jerusalem; *
he gathers the exiles of Israel.
- 3 He heals the brokenhearted *
and binds up their wounds.
- 4 He counts the number of the stars *
and calls them all by their names.
- 5 Great is our LORD and mighty in power; *
there is no limit to his wisdom.
- 6 The LORD lifts up the lowly, *
but casts the wicked to the ground.
- 7 Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving; *
make music to our God upon the harp.

THE EPISTLE

2 Timothy 4:5-13

AS FOR YOU, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully. As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing. Do your best to come to me soon, for Demas, in love with this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful in my ministry. I have sent Tychicus to Ephesus. When you come, bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas, also the books, and above all the parchments.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Please stand as you are able and join in singing,

THE GOSPEL

Saint Luke 4:14-21

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke. ✠

People Glory to you Lord, Christ.

JESUS, FILLED WITH THE POWER OF THE SPIRIT, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone. When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE THANKSGIVING OVER THE WATER

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues, saying,

WE THANK YOU, ALMIGHTY GOD, for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

WE THANK YOU, FATHER, for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit. Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

The Celebrant touches the water saying,

NOW SANCTIFY THIS WATER, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who here are cleansed from sin and born again may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

✠ THE HOLY COMMUNION ✠

DONATE WITH E-GIVING HERE:

We are now prepared for the miracle of the Holy Communion. The Offertory gives us a chance to offer back to God some of what God has given us, symbolically in the bread and wine, in the money we give, and spiritually in the offering of ourselves. The Cathedral thanks you for your generosity, which allows the clergy, staff, and congregation to continue to minister to Detroit and the greater metropolitan region.

AT THE OFFERTORY, ANTHEM

Ernest Bullock (1890-1979)

GIVE US THE WINGS OF FAITH to rise within the veil, and see the saints above, how great their joys, how bright their glories be.
We ask them whence their victory came, they, with one united breath,
Ascribe the conquest to the Lamb, their triumph to his death.
They marked the footsteps that he trod, his zeal inspired their breast,
And, following their incarnate God, they reached their promised rest.

Isaac Watts (1674-1748)

Please stand as you are able and join in singing.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Celebrant

People

Celebrant Lift up your hearts. People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues

IT IS RIGHT, AND A GOOD AND JOYFUL THING, always and every-where to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For in the multitude of your saints you have surrounded us with a great cloud of witnesses, that we might rejoice in their fellowship, and run with endurance the race that is set before us; and, together with them, receive the crown of glory that never fades away.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

All sing,

The People stand or kneel. The Celebrant continues

HOLY AND GRACIOUS LORD: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Creator of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

ON THE NIGHT HE WAS HANDED OVER to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." ✠

AFTER SUPPER HE TOOK THE CUP OF WINE; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." ✠

Celebrant Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:
People Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

WE CELEBRATE THE MEMORIAL OF OUR REDEMPTION, O Lord, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also ✠ that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

OUR FATHER, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated bread and a period of silence is kept.

THE FRACTION ANTHEM

SUBMISSIONS FOR ALL SAINTS & ALL SOULS: THE BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE & ALTAR OF THE DEAD On Sunday, November 1st we will celebrate the Feasts of All Saints and All Souls. As part of that celebration, we would ask that you write the names of your loved ones you want listed in our Book of Remembrance provided in the Gallery or by e-mailing Erin in the Cathedral Office at info@detroitcathedral.org by Tuesday, October 27. In addition to the Book of Remembrance, we will create an Altar of the Dead. This tradition has its origin in the Hispanic culture's Dia de los Muertos (Day of the Dead), a holiday that honors departed family members. Ofrendas (Altars) are traditionally decorated with bright flowers, candles, incense, photos, and favorite foods and drinks of those being honored. If you would like to drop off pictures, mementos, or other items for the altar, please bring them to the Cathedral Office by Wednesday, October 28.

STEWARDSHIP FOR 2027 CAMPAIGN Our Annual Stewardship campaign has begun, with this year's theme being Living Testimonies: Stewarding Our Stories. Over the next several weeks this theme will be elaborated on in letters, emails, and videos from our Stewardship Committee members. During this time leading up to the Ingathering of Pledges on Sunday, November 1st, we will make every effort to inform and inspire your financial commitment. On that day we ask you to attend worship, place your commitment for the future mission and ministry of the Cathedral on the altar, and join in a Celebration Brunch after the 11:00 service. Thank you for all that you do for our church and for the world. We ask that you pray with us as we undertake this campaign and, in prayer, consider what you can contribute to our work in 2027 and beyond.

NEW LECTORS TRAINING: NOVEMBER 15 AT 12:30 PM Lectors (readers) play an important role in the liturgy by sharing and proclaiming the sacred scriptures. Canon Tarrant will offer a session geared toward new lectors. Current lectors are also invited as a way to check-in, ask questions, or simply brush-up. Please indicate your interest by e-mailing him at jtarrant@detroitcathedral.org.

HELP US CREATE A CCSP COMMUNITY COOKBOOK! We're creating a cookbook filled with recipes from the Cathedral community and we want yours! We're looking for approximately 150 recipes, from treasured family favorites and beloved classics to vintage recipes that deserve to be shared again. The cookbook will support our Feeding Hungry People Ministry, with 100% of the proceeds going to the Sunday Food Program. Recipes are open to everyone, whether you're a parishioner, friend, family member, or part of the wider Cathedral community. Please submit your recipe by January 1, 2027 to cafemuse@me.com. Questions? Contact Greg Reyner at 248-390-5433 (text is preferred) or by email. Share a favorite recipe and help us turn good food into support for our community!

INTERESTED IN JOINING THE CATHEDRAL CHOIR? Adults desiring to learn more about participation in the Cathedral choirs are warmly invited to contact Canon Tarrant at music@detroitcathedral.org, or by calling 313.833.7547.

THE FEEDING HUNGRY PEOPLE (FHP) COMMITTEE A long-standing committee for the past two decades, FHP serves food and provides support and care to our neighbors in need through acts of service at the Cathedral. It continues to coordinate volunteers and community members interested in serving others through food and supportive services. Layla and Brandon King have accepted the roles of Chair and Co-Chair and will help the committee expand, grow, and become a hub of care and support at the Cathedral in Midtown Detroit. If you are interested in joining the FHP Committee and participating in its work, please contact Layla King at layla.noor98@gmail.com.

SUNDAY EVENSONG SERVICES AT 4:00 P.M. Evensong is offered each Sunday at 4:00 p.m., alternating with Choral Evensong (sung by one of the Cathedral Choirs) and Cathedral Evensong (sung by Cantors & Congregation). We will also welcome a number of guest preachers to offer the homily throughout the season.

CATHEDRAL CRAFTERS Cathedral Crafters meet on the first and third Tuesdays of the month at 12:30pm in the Cathedral Library, where we knit or do other needle crafts. Anyone who knits or would like to learn how to knit is welcome! For questions, please contact info@detroitcathedral.org

WILLIAMS PAVILION LITTLE FOOD PANTRY A HUGE thank you to each person who is contributing to our Free Little Pantry at Williams Pavilion. Your continued support of this ministry helps meet the needs of residents that might not be otherwise met. Please continue to take sticky notes and donate items. This will be an ongoing ministry of the Cathedral! Williams Pavilion is a housing community in Detroit that provides affordable apartments for low-income senior citizens, and we are excited to introduce the Williams Pavilion Little Food Pantry, which will support residents who live on fixed income and will help to supplement necessary items. Donation items are posted on the bulletin board in the Gallery. Please take a sticky note with the needed item and return the purchased item to the cart under the bulletin board.
